

BRENDA CAMPBELL MEMORIAL BURSARY

DESCRIPTION

Brenda Lee Livingstone was born August 24, 1966 at C.F.B. Cold Lake, Alberta. She was the fourth daughter of Wes and Jeannette Livingstone. She lived in Alberta and Germany in her early years, moving to Wells, B.C. and eventually to Quesnel.

Brenda's personal educational journey attests to her belief in the importance of education. Following her graduation from Quesnel Secondary School Brenda trained as a Long-Term Care Aide. Years later, she obtained a Diploma in Nursing at the College of New Caledonia and then went on to complete a Bachelor of Nursing degree through the University of Northern Alberta.

Her nursing career focused primarily on the care of the elderly; working at Dunrovin Park Lodge for 25 years. Brenda was trusted and well respected by other health care providers as well as residents, patients and their families. Brenda was described as "Someone who brought humor, empathy and wisdom to any situation". She was a supportive mentor but also set high standards both for her and for others.

Although her love and passion for her work was unprecedented, nursing was just one aspect of Brenda's life. Anyone that knew Brenda socially would tell you that she had a huge presence; her effervescent love of life was palpable and her laugh contagious. She lived, and encouraged others to live, a healthy, generous lifestyle. As a walker and runner, she participated in numerous events to fundraise for various charities such as the 60km Walk to End Breast Cancer.

In addition to being an extraordinary nurse and a committed community builder, Brenda was first and foremost a devoted wife and mother. Family, immediate or extended, by blood or by life experience, was supreme.

In her short 48 years on this earth, Brenda Lee Campbell left an indelible mark and countless treasured memories in the hearts of almost everyone that she met. The outpouring of love and support from over 500 individuals at her memorial service was a testament to that.
